[NUMB. 3009]

MONDAY, APRIL 15, 1745.

this day last arriv'd a Mail from Holland.

Petersburgh, March 27.

THE French Minister, M. d'Alion, had this Day an Audience of her Imperial Majesty in the usual Forms; and presented his Letters Credential, which were addressed, as was expected, to the Empress of all the Russias. He made a very long Speech, tolling principally on Three Points; viz. the first, her Imperial Majesty's Personal Regard to her Interests; the second, her Regard to the Concerns of the Empire; and the third, the Sense his Most Christian Majesty has of the Uprightness of her Intentions as to the Disputes among the Powers of Europe. Preparations are making for the Imperial Marriage; and as soon as it is over, Marshal Daun will march with a Corps of Troops to the Kingdom of Poland, and thence, perhaps Germany. In the Night, between the 19th and 20th of last Month, a Column of 8000 Spanish and Italian Troops began to march towards the Aqueducts. This Column arriv'd about Break of Day. There was in that Post a Picquet of French Troops, who retir'd to Arion, where they assembled 4000 Men, and seem'd to intend to oppose the Enemy's Passage; but soon after, having continued their Retreat, without stopping, they arriv'd at Cesena, where Prince Lobkowitz pitched his Head Quarters. The next Day his Highness retir'd from thence; and his Army, which might not forget that they had been carried off about 8000 Crowns. They retir'd thence to Forli, from thence to Faenza, thence to Bologna, and to-morrow Morning we expect them in the neighbourhood, part of their Baggage being already there. The Spaniards follow them close at their heels, and it is reported have made 700 Prisoners in the course of this Retreat. We are under great Pain about the War this Summer; because it seems probable, that the House of Bourbon is determined to use utmost Strength this Campaign, in order to reduce Philip in Italy, and to restore the Duke of Parma to his Duchy.

March 27. Ten thousand five hundred Men were raised in Bohemia and Moravia, so that the Army is now completed, each Regiment to 1094, and the whole to 12000. Our Army in Silesia has received the reinforcement of its Recruits, and will consist in all of 58 Regiments, which may be reckoned at 600 Men; and 10000 of Horse, with five Regiments of Foot, at 1200 each, with about 20,000 Croats and Germans, of whom 13,000 are actually there. In all we shall have 50,000 Men complete. At present 40,000 of our Troops are there, exclusive of Garri-sons. We have good Intelligence that the King of Prussia is arriv'd, with General Schwerin, in Silesia; and that his Army will consist of above 60,000 effective Men, of which are to encamp at Neiss, 15,000 at Breslau, and 15,000 about Cossel. The Saxons are now near the Frontiers of Silesia, towards Braunau. The Prussian Regiment of Foot, consisting of 3000 Men, is marching from Slavonia into Italy; and about 10,000 of which are on the Road, besides those who have been raised nearer at Hand. Velt Marshal Traun is appointed Commander in Chief of the Army in Divaria.

April 10. Advices from Silesia take Notice, that the Garrison at Neiss had taken Fire; that all the Straw, which had been consumed by the Flames; but that happily changing, the great Magazine was not hurt. Yesterday Morning the Horse-Guards began their march from Silesia, as did also a Detachment of Foot from Potsdam. Count Lep's Regiment of Foot, which has been on its March ever since the 2d of this Month, has received Orders to halt at Crossen. It is likewise said, that some other Regiments are to return to their Camp near Magdebourg; and that it is with great Probability, that the last Orders for Marching were given by the King to the three Regiments of Foot which are in Garrison here; namely those of Prince Royal of Prussia, Wartenberg, and Prince Leopold. The Regiments are not yet gone, nor are they taken out of the Camp; but 50 Carriages for them, besides a like Number of Provision Waggon, and 200 Horses, went this Morning, escorted by a Detachment drawn from the three Regiments above-mentioned, and by some of the Train of Artillery, for Silesia.

Dresden, April 5. A few Days ago arrived here from Hanover, with the Character of Minister from the King of Great Britain, as Elector of Hanover, M. Alvensleben, and Yesterday he had his first Audience of his Polish Majesty. The same Day his Predecessor, M. Busch, who is going to the Court of Vienna, had his Audience of Leave of the King of Poland; as had also General Bernes, who was lately sent hither from the Queen of Hungary to execute a Military Commission; his Polish Majesty presented him with a Diamond Ring of considerable Value on that Occasion. Here is a Report that two Prussian Regiments, one of Infantry, the other the Black Hussars, have been totally defeated near Oppeln by the Insurgents; and it is certain that several wounded Soldiers have been brought into Breslau. We have Advice that the King of Prussia is at Neiss, and that the reigning Prince of Anhalt Dessau is retired, with a Resolution of not serving any longer. It is likewise said, that his Son, Prince Leopold, is ill; and that the Field-Marshal Schwerin had acquainted the King that he was so likewise, the Day before he was to leave his Country Seat, in order to join the Army in Silesia.

Dresden, April 14. We had Advice Yesterday, by a Letter of the 8th Inst. from Ratisbon, that the French were not gone to Landshut, but to Donawerth; and that Prince Saxe-Hildburghausen, at the Head of the Bavarians and Hessians, had evacuated the former Place, and was then at Mospurg; that M. St. Germain, with the Troops from Reichenhall, Burghausen, and the Saltza, was at Wasserburg; and that the Elector was still at Munich, with four or five Regiments encamped without the Town. The Austrians have taken Possession of Landshut, and have found Remains of Magazines in several Places abandon'd by their Enemies.

Hamburg, April 13. It is reported, that the late Success of the Queen of Hungary's Arms in Bavaria has already obliged the Elector to leave Munich, and to retire to Augsburg. The Allied Army upon the Rhine has found it expedient to withdraw from some of the advanced Posts they were in Possession of, from the extreme Scarcity of Provisions and Forage; which would have rendered the longer Subsistence of their Army impossible, had they not moved their Quarters.

Ostend, April 14. The Transports from the North came into this Road last Night, and into the Harbour safe To-day, as did those from Gravesend. All the Horses, except Sir Robert Rich's, are landed, and the whole proceeds for Bruges To-morrow Morning, so that the Transports will return the first fair Wind.

Paris, April 16. Yesterday arrived a Courier from M. de Chavigny, his Majesty's Minister at the Court of Munich, whose Dispatches have thrown the Court into a very great Consternation. Two Councils were held the same Day; and a Report prevails, that his Electoral Highness finding it impossible to preserve his Capital, or any Part of his Country, by Force of Arms, has been obliged to accept of a Neutrality. M. de Courten is lately arriv'd from Berlin; he travell'd Part of the Way in the Disguise of a Pedlar, and was six or seven Times in Danger of being taken. It is now given out the King will depart on the 16th for Valenciennes. The Prince of Conti set out on the 14th, at Three in the Morning, with 36 Post Horses. It is believ'd he will reach the Army by the 20th. They report at Versailles, that we are on the Point of seeing three great Blows struck, in different Parts of the World, all at once. The First, is supposed to be the March into the Electorate of Hanover; the Second, a Battle on the Rhine; and the Third, the Effects of a Negotiation in Italy. That the Triumphs of the present Reign may be written with Eloquence, as well as Veracity, and Louis, the well beloved of France, make as good a Figure as Charles the Brave of Sweden, M. de Voltaire is declared Historiographer of France, a Place that has not been fill'd up since the Death of the famous M. Mezeray. As for M. de Maupertius, he is actually established at Berlin, with the Title of Director-General of the Academy Royal in that City, and a Pension of 15,000 Livres a Year. He is hourly expected here, in order to settle his private Affairs, and to dispose of his Effects.

Hague, April 20. The Day after his Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland arriv'd here, his Highness was complimented, and attended by the Foreign Ministers, and Yesterday, by the Members and Regents of this Government; which the Strictness with which Easter is observed in this Country, prevented them from doing the preceding Day. The States-General do not assemble even upon an Easter Monday; but the unexpected Condescension of the Duke, in dropping in and calling upon their President, as his Royal Highness was taking a View of the Hague, gave Occasion to the President's immediately convening an extraordinary Assembly; and to their High Mightinesses sending a formal Deputation to his Royal Highness, with their due Acknowledgments of the Honour he had done them, and with their best Wishes of Success in the important Command he was going to enter upon. His Royal Highness's Impatience to join and head the Army, hurried him away from hence this Morning before Break of Day; and it is reckon'd he will reach Brussels by To-morrow Noon. The Duke's Affability even led him to make a familiar Visit to the Pensionary and Grefier, the former happened to be out of Town, but his Royal Highness left the latter, as well as every body else who had the Honour to approach him, extremely pleas'd with the gracious Manner of their Reception.

HOME PORT.

Deal, April 12. Remain his Majesty's Ship Duke, the Baltimore Sloop, the Swift and Sutherland Privateers, the three East India Ships, and the Outward-bound as per list.

Deal, April 13. Wind N. E. This Morning several of the Coasters sail'd to the Westward, and the Sutherland Privateer on a Cruise. The Baltimore Sloop is preparing to sail, and the East India Ships, also two Transport Hoys that are just come down. Came down his Majesty's Sloop Hawk, the Farnley, Gibson, for Lisbon, and remain with the Duke Man of War, the Swift Privateer, and several of the Outward-bound Ships. Arriv'd the Charming Molly, Kelly, from Leghorn; and the Italian Merchant, Ribie, from ditto, but last from Dublin.

LONDON.

We learn from Hamburg, that a Scheme of a general Pacification is asser'ted to be under Consideration at certain Court; which, when thoroughly digested, will be propos'd to the Powers at War, under the joint Mediation of the Grand Signor, the Czarina, and the King of Sweden; which Report, notwithstanding its Singularity, is said to gain more and more Credit there every Day.

Some private Letters from Dresden speak of the King of Poland's Election to the Imperial Dignity as the great Object of the frequent Councils held there every Day; and farther assure us, that it is look'd upon as a Thing that can hardly fail of taking Place, considering the Weight of that Monarch's Power at this juncture in Germany.

From Vienna we learn, that Field-Marshal Count Traun had used all imaginable Methods to decline the Command of the Queen's Armies in Bavaria; but at last had consented to accept it, that Count Bathiani, who has done such Wonders in that Country, may proceed immediately into Italy, in order to restore Affairs there, which wear but an indifferent Prospect at present.

According to the last Letters from Paris, it is given out there, that his Most Christian Majesty proposes to act this Summer with 80 Battalions, and 140 Squadrons, in Flanders; 25 Battalions, and 60 Squadrons, on the Main; 54 Battalions, and 68 Squadrons, against Hanover; 20 Battalions, and 30 Squadrons, in Bavaria; and 30 Battalions, and 45 Squadrons, in Italy. These Armies making in the whole (at least upon Paper) 104,500 Foot, and 34,300 Horse.

The same Letters say, that it is very much doubted whether the King will go to the Army this Summer; and if he does, whether M. Noailles will accompany him, as was at first propos'd, since the Presence of the King is so necessary in his Councils, and the Negotiations in Germany demand that of the Marshal more than ever.

We learn from Brussels, that Field-Marshal Count Koenigsegg having the sole Direction of the Military Operations of the ensuing Campaign, proposes to assemble the Army of the Allies as soon as possible, and to take the most effectual Methods to disconcert the Schemes of France, by bringing her Army to a Battle immediately.

They write from the Hague, that, according to the last Advices from the Army of the Duke of Arceberg, it was apprehended he would repass the Rhine on the 17th; after taking all the necessary Precautions to hinder the French from falling, with any Advantage, upon his Rear-Guard, which was to be compos'd of the Dutch Troops.

The Ship of Capt. Valentine Stammin, belonging to Dantzick, is lost on the Antioch Ryff, but the Captain and Crew are saved.

A Dutch Galliot of three Masts, laden with Wine, &c. is drove ashore within a few Leagues of the Scaw, and it's fear'd will be lost.

Yesterday the Bishop of Salisbury, Lord Almoner, preach'd before his Majesty, the Prince and Princess of Wales, &c. and it being a high Festival, the Knights Companions of the most Noble Order of the Garter, Thistle, and Bath, appeared in the Collars of their respective Orders.

After Divine Service, his Majesty, &c. receiv'd the Holy Communion from the Hands of the Bishop of Exeter; and, according to Custom, his Majesty made an Offering of the Wedge of Gold at the Altar, for the Benefit of the Poor.

The Sword of State was carried to and from Chapel by his Grace the Duke of Portland.

Last Saturday the Right Hon. the Earl of Dunmore, Colonel of the third Regiment of Foot Guards, and General of Foot, set out from his House in Hanover Square, in order to embark for Ostend, in his Way to Flanders.

A noted Surgeon, aged 70, is lately gone Abroad, on Account of Sodomitical Practices.
